

Tournament of time

42 teams participated in 14 relay-type games. First place was tied between teacher sponsors Lewis' team and Howe's team.

words, layout & photos | Kitarrah Mangra-Dutcher

1 Jonah Blondino '17 smears pudding on his face to prepare for the cheese ball toss as his team photographer, Lori Sandahl watches. Rock Around the Clock is an annual event hosted by Student Council, where 42 teams comprised of seniors, juniors and sophomores compete in 14 different events.

2 Adam Stiles '17 reaches his hand into the "Find a Golf Ball" event. Rock Around the Clock is an annual event hosted by Student Council, where 42 teams comprised of seniors, juniors and sophomores compete in 14 different events.

3 Ashley Wolter '18 rolls into somersault during the potato sack race. Rock Around the Clock is an annual event hosted by Student Council, where 42 teams comprised of seniors, juniors and sophomores compete in 14 different events.

4 Morgan Wendel '17 uses the sprinklers on the baseball field to rinse off. Rock Around the Clock is an annual event hosted by Student Council, where 42 teams comprised of seniors, juniors and sophomores compete in 14 different events.

5 During the balloon popping challenge, Jack Dreyer '17 blows up his balloon. Rock Around the Clock is an annual event hosted by Student Council, where 42 teams comprised of seniors, juniors and sophomores compete in 14 different events.