

Date night ideas

- Going out to eat
- Going to the movies
- Staying home and renting a movie
- Going grab a dessert
- Preparing a romantic dinner for your significant other
- Hanging out with friends

Valentine's Day looks for all

How did you meet your Valentine?

"I met him during a class at Loras College." -Mrs. Tursi
 "At a junior high ball game I said, 'I want her to be my wife.'" -Mr. Clark
 "We met at church youth group in high school." -Mrs. Henkel
 "I met her in the Coe College cafeteria." -Mr. Dyrland
 "We played band together at Augustana." -Mr. Oldenkamp
 "I met him in the frozen foods section at Hyvee." -Jackie Little
 "We were high school sweethearts." -Danielle Rice

What are your Valentine's Day plans?

"Crying and eating lots of ice cream." -Marshall Boche, '19
 "I'll be at dance practice that night." -Christina Arundale, '18
 "Absolutely nothing at all." -Andrew Mota, '17
 "Hang out with my boyfriend and watch movies." -Alexis Walker, '20

What is the favorite Valentine's Day candy?

Gifts to get your girl

- 365 note compliment jar
- Picture frame filled with a favorite photo
- Flowers & chocolate & candles
- Perfume
- Giant teddy bear
- Dainty necklace or ring

Gifts to get your guy

- "Open When" notes
- Candy with cheesy notes
- Personalized keychain
- Favorite clothing apparel
- Pair of shoes
- Watch

Long-term couples celebrate this Valentine's Day

Chloe Trca, '19, and Brady Donohue, '17, have been dating for one year. Their anniversary is on February sixth and they plan on enjoying the day together.

Anya Schobert, '19, and Patrick Bleadorn, '19, have been dating for three years. Their favorite spot to eat when they have a date night is Red Robin.

Emily Millbach, '18, and Jacob Clothier, '17, have been dating for one year. They went on their first date at Pancheros.

