

VIDEO GAMES

These three video games drew in students and became go-to entertainment.

CD PHOTOS BY PEYTON BRADY

BLACK OPS 4

"I like Black Ops 4 because it's a game that has gone on for generations," Aidan Yamashita '19 said. "And it is something I've been able to play since I was little."

RED DEAD REDEMPTION 2

"(I like it because you) have the ability to do whatever you like," Nathan Wilkinson '19 said.

SCREENSHOT FROM PLAYSTATION

APEX

"(It) combines all the games I like and makes a very fun tactical game," Sebastian Cochran '21 said. Jack Dickens '19 added, "It's a fresh take on a battle royal game and fun to play with friends."

PHOTO BY ELLIE BROWN

FASHION

NORDIC BEACH

Morgan Ellerman '19 wears her chocolate cherry Nordic Beach on Feb. 13. "I love my Nordic because it's literally like wearing a blanket," she said. "It is so soft and warm. It just makes me feel super comfy."

FILA DISRUPTER

Seniors Olivia Dachtler and Maddy Luegering show off their Fila Disrupters on Feb. 13. "As a 5'1" girl, Fila's are my favorite because they give me a good two inches to make me almost average height," Dachtler said.

“

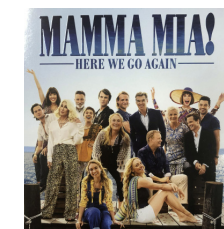

PHOTO BY ELLIE BROWN

NOW TRENDING

POPULAR MEDIA TRENDS YOU COULDN'T GO WITHOUT SEEING THIS YEAR. WHICH ONE IS YOUR FAVORITE?

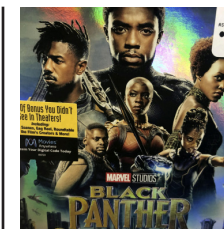

NETFLIX PHOTO BY PEYTON BRADY

MAMMA MIA! HERE WE GO AGAIN

"(This) is such a feel good movie. Love, love, love ABBA and Mamma Mia. It makes me so happy." —Emma Furlong '21

BLACK PANTHER

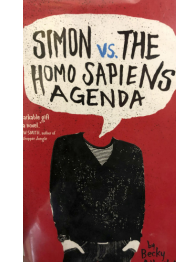

"Black Panther is a legendary movie that is life-changing and game-changing." —Maggie Towler '19

INCREDIBLES 2

"Incredibles 2 is straight genius. Only for '90s babies and people born in 2000, nobody else. Seriously, the best movie of the year." —Ellie Kouba '19

PHOTOS BY PEYTON BRADY

BOOKS TO MOVIES

The year 2018 was a big year for books to transition to the big screen. Ready Player One, written by Ernest Cline and published in 2011, was released as a film March 29. Becky Albertalli's Simon vs. the Homo Sapiens Agenda was released as Love, Simon in theaters March 16. "I loved how supportive Simon's parents were of him, and how sorry they were for assuming the wrong things," Aislin Craig '21 said. "It just shows how important it is for parents to accept their child for who they are."

THE HATE U GIVE

Written by Angie Thomas, this book was released as a film Oct. 19. "(It is) brutally realistic (and) helped to open up the discussion about the injustices of being a young black male in America's society today," Ellen Moser '21 said.

PHOTO BY PEYTON BRADY

CRAZY RICH ASIANS

"(It) sends a powerful message that no matter what circumstances are around that otherwise discourages, love is the binding factor between two humans and nothing should come between that." —Mikail Syed '20

OCEAN'S 8

"It's a funny movie that is suspenseful and keeps you watching. I like the plot line and how they used real life celebrities throughout the scenes so you can search for people you know." —Piper Brady '22

A QUIET PLACE

"I liked the idea that you couldn't talk, because it made the movie more dramatic. I (also) like the actor John Krasinski a lot." —Boaz Abramoff '22

DVD PHOTOS BY PEYTON BRADY

student life | pop culture

49