

Please see the following pages for Hudson's entries for
"Theme".

SHAPING perspectives

*These are the moments
that SHAPED us.
This is our PERSPECTIVE.*

"Remember to just maintain a positive outlook on life, try your hardest, and you'll succeed."
-senior Payton Sherwood

"Don't let one thing bring you down."
-senior Noah Mills

"Never let go of the rope."
-senior Caleb Koelling

"Become more observant of everyone and things around you."
-senior Rachel Bauler

"Always hustle, and never slack off."
-senior Elvaray Wiele

"The tassel is worth the hassle."
-senior Regan Swangel

"Make your life what you want it to be."
-senior Cole Luck

"Never make someone a priority when all you are to them is an option."
-senior Becca Entriken

"Over the years, I have found that high school gets easier as you go through it."
-senior Connor Stacker

"Try and see the positive things in all situations."
-senior Austin Kahler

"Your mental health is more important than anything else."
-senior Maddie Danielson

"Be happy with your life. Don't compare yourself to others."
-senior Collin Luck

"Learn the value of hard work by working hard."
-senior Travis Carolan

"Sometimes you will never know a value of a moment until it becomes a memory."
-senior Morgan Kegeben

"Fake your confidence until you actually feel confident in yourself."
-senior Whitley Galbraith

"Be true to yourself, and do what will make you happy."
-senior Carter Haddeman

"#RFEA Run fast and eat apples."
-senior Izik Rodriguez

"Believe in yourself."
-senior Megan Sigmund

"Take advantage of the time you have, try new things, and drink chocolate milk."
-senior Ivan Wilson

"Focus on the big picture in life."
-senior Abi Henderson

"Go into everything with a positive attitude."
-senior Emily Boote

"Prove yourself to yourself, not others."
-senior Abbi Fernau

"Be genuine, life is too short not to care."
-senior Lucas Lubben

"Just take things one at a time when you are stressed about many things."
-senior Adam Meyer

"You miss 100% of the shots you do not take."
-senior Jacob Murray

"Live life to the fullest."
-senior Nate Boyer

"Sometimes stress motivates you to work harder and be better."
-senior A'Leah Danielson

"Dreams do not work unless you do."
-senior Jacob Myers

"Sometimes you have to fall before you can fly."
-senior Isabelle Johannsen

"Focus on putting things in perspective."
-senior Sam Hanson

"Get in the zone, Auto Zone."
-senior Alan Jackson

"Cherish every moment because it goes by quickly."
-senior Maddie Grams

"The harder the battle, the sweeter the Victory Royale."
-Alec Staebell

"Life is like a box of chocolates, eat it all."
-senior Christian Seres

"Always have a pair of headphones."
-senior Jon Taylor

"Don't worry about what people think or say."
-senior Bailey Johnson

"Find something that gives you purpose and do it."
-senior Jacob Kuhn

"Life is not what has happened to you. It is what you choose to become."
-senior Jayden Engel

"Make sure you take risks and try new things."
-senior Mikaela Meyer

"Make sure you do something new every year."
-senior Alyssa Fredericksen

"Take others' opinions with a grain of salt."
-senior Steph Prather

"Find the meaning in the meaningless."
-senior Caden Youngblut

HHS BUNCH 019

What advice would you give to others that has helped SHAPED your perspective?

C I R C L E
F
U
L
L

Whether it's completing readings from Western Civ or performing Seussical, new ideas have taken SHAPE, & we've deepened our [SQUARE] roots. Whichever ANGLE we're looking from- whether we are teachers, athletes, or scholars- this year we've come FULL CIRCLE.

S B A C K 2 H O O L

1st grader Grayson Bowman & kindergartener Jace Rhoades pose before going to their first day of school. [] HCSD added six faculty: high school science teacher Madeline Sinnott, elementary music teacher Jennifer Bistline, high school math teacher Holly Petersen, kindergarten teacher Jordan Hammerand, high school English teacher Jennifer Ersland, & 2nd grade teacher Olivia Jorgensen. [] Kindergarteners Cole Curley & Jace Kucker take their first back-to-school picture with 3rd grader Camdyn Budde, 6th grader Amelia Klenk, 7th grader Makenzie Stuart, sophomore Caitlyn O'Malley, & juniors Jenna Twait, Orion Polendo, & Payton Stuart.

Marching Into A New Year

It's only Hudson's second year with a marching band, and director Nicole Davis is already taking it to the next level. During the season opener, the 36-member group took the field during halftime wearing four-piece uniforms purchased by the Hudson Music Boosters.

Some students who participated in the marching band's debut are freshman Zander Young on the bass drum, sophomores Madeline Santman & AbiJo Peet in the clarinet line, freshman Ashlyn Reynolds on trumpet, senior Abi Henderson on bells, & newcomer freshman Theone Thompson on trumpet.

Having A Ball

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), a national organization which began in 1945, started a chapter in Hudson. This group is trying to complete the FCA mission: "We hope to help students grow in their faith and have confidence in who they are," said co-advisor Amanda Schneider, a para educator at the high school.

Freshman Levi Budreau plays Spikeball at the first FCA event held at the soccer fields. Over 50 students attended.

Under The Friday Night Lights

The varsity football team entered the season ranked first in their division. At their season's home opener, the Pirates proved they deserved that title. They beat rival GMG by 35 points. [] Before the game, senior Jacob Murray, sophomore Jackson Lehr, along with juniors Aiden Larson & Trey Germain huddle up. [] Senior Mikaela Meyer, one of six new cheerleaders, poses with some of the 15-member squad: dual-enrolled student Kacie Herring; sophomores Jada Gaskill, Hannah Tjepkes, & Mia McNeal; juniors Grace Schweneker & Emma Kegebein; sophomore Marli Reisner; seniors Maddie Grams & Bailey Johnson; juniors Brooke Busch & Ellie Brown; & senior Rachel Bauler. [] In the student section, sophomore Sam Hansen cheers proudly in his Hawaiian-Out gear.

"Friday Night Lights are our opportunity to pull the team and the community closer together."

-junior Trey Germain

