

Varsity and junior varsity show choir groups came together Dec. 22 in the Arganbright Auditorium to perform in front of friends and family at the annual Winter Swing Show. Good Time Company's set "Jukebox Heroes," which was directed by David Haas, included the songs Rex Tremendae, Carry On My Wayward Son/Jukebox Hero, Whitney Houston, If I Had Only Known, Say Something and I'll Be There. Showtime's "Freedom" set, directed by Luigi Enriquez, included the songs Dellilah, Machine, Read All About It, Ain't Nothing Wrong With That and Freedom.

IN UNISON Asha Sandhu '20, Leah Rietz '20, Lucy Polyak '19, Alexis Njoroge '21 and Hanna O'Dell '19 perform Whitney Houston. "The theme this year, Jukebox Heroes, is especially fun because it's just a big jam session on stage," Rietz said. "We have played around a lot with props and special effects."

ABOVE LEFT Solo alternates Carson Baldes '19 and Mallika Huynh '21 sing Say Something during the Good Time Company performance Dec. 22. "Show choir is great because it provides an accepting and fun place to just jam out with your friends, but also pushes everyone to do their best," Huynh said.

ABOVE Good Time Company members Mallika Huynh '21, Sam Sunderland '19 and Carrie Harper '19 perform Carry On My Wayward Son. "This year's set list is so much fun. It's different than what we usually do, but in a good way ... I'm glad we were given the opportunity to do them," Sunderland said. "There are a few that were classics years ago ... other groups usually stick to modern music."

IN THE SPOTLIGHT Showtime member Niyati Deshpande '21 sings her solo part to Read All About It on Dec. 22. "The thing I love most about show choir is the community. At competitions, everyone supports each other and it isn't so cut-throat as other sports can be."

CENTER STAGE Brynne Nock '22 dances to Showtime's Freedom at the Winter Swing Show on Dec. 22 in Arganbright Auditorium.
