Blackhawk Volume 103, "Speak of the Devil," was printed by Walsworth at Walsworth Publishing Company, 731 South Brunswick, Brookfield, MO 64628. It was created at Central High School, 1120 Main Street, Davenport IA 52803. It was created using Walsworth's Online Design and submitted through the program. Our yearbook representative was Jim Straub. The all-color book contains 176 pages, and 350 books were printed. The cost of the book was $65 at registration and then the book price rose to $75; the price then went to $85. The cover was designed by the yearbook staff and Kallista Souther from Walsworth Creative Services and printed on a "Cherry Tomato" cover with a clear silk-screened devil logo, silver and white hot foil and embossing. The pages were printed on the Anthem Plus/Legend Gloss 100# stock. The font "Lynn" was used for the body and caption copy, "Cornell" was used for subheadlines, "OliveOil" was used for headlines and all three were used for miscellaneous copy. The cameras used were the EOS Rebel T6i, the Sony a7 and two Sony a5000 cameras. Carlson Creative Images took senior portraits as well as group, club and team photos. LifeTouch photography took underclassmen and staff portraits. The colors used were F1000 (Orange), F5800 (Gray), F3501 (Blue), F0601 (Maroon) and F3002 (Red). Davenport Central is a member of NSPA and IHSPA.

As the 103rd Blackhawk Yearbook wraps up, our yearbook staff would like to thank everyone who took part in making our publication as great as it could be. Without the cooperation and participation of students and staff when being interviewed and photographed, our yearbook could not be done. Thank you for supporting student journalism, and we hope you enjoy this volume of the Blackhawk Yearbook, "Speak of the Devil"!
