What does being a Blue Devil mean to you?

"Our building is really old, and it doesn't actually look like a high school because of how it's built, which I think makes it different, and I like it."

"Being a Blue Devil means 'tradition.' You are steeped in a community that is around you and together - something that is more than stone and walls and rooms - but a community. Everyone here has a passion, and our staff is passionate about finding what our students love and connecting them to others who have that same passion." -Ms. Vandermyde
