

HIGH VOLTAGE

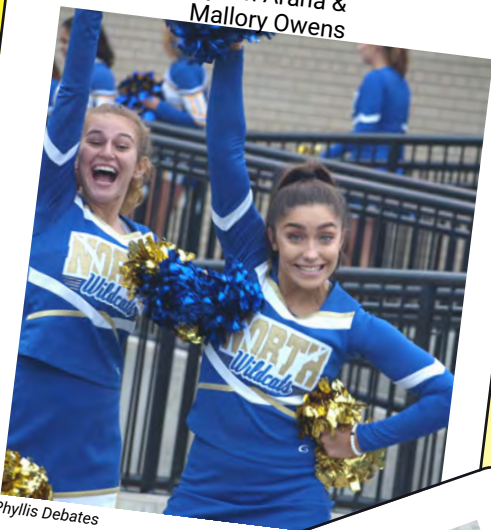

Max Revels

Firing It Up

As junior Bailey Ortega sets the ball for the kill, senior Katelyn Bruce charges in for the first attack in a home game against Muscatine. "The hitters I have this year make running a fast offense very easy. Setting for this team has helped me learn a lot and I'm happy to be on a team with such great, talented players," said Ortega.

Ryann Arana & Mallory Owens

Phyllis Debates

Stephen Schroeder

Missy Aimee

Bright Ideas Spark

TeAyla Humphrey

Hitting the books to dig up World War I facts in U. S. History, sophomore Devin Glover takes notes for his weekly check up.

Like a zap of lightning, new start and dismissal times jolted usual routines for students and staff, as well as the move from morning to afternoon RTI and PAWS sessions. Also, a security system buzzed people inside causing students to realize that when high voltage ignites a spark, life can change in a flash.