

A Zombie Jamboree

Freshman Joel Herring takes a selfie with a little girl dressed as a calf at the second annual Halloween Carnival hosted by the high school choir. [] 5th grader Jacob Culham and 1st grader Josh Culham play a game of Candy Corn Cup Switch with junior Tara Jochumsen.

Fight To The Finish

Throughout the season, the cross country team kept their motto "hold the rope" at the forefront of the program. At the district meet held in Marshalltown, the girls "held the rope" and received their ticket, punched to run at the state meet. While the boys team ended their season early, sophomore Sam Hansen "held the rope" and qualified individually, along with juniors Sophie Selenke and Jenna Twait. While going into the state meet only being ranked as 5th, the girls knew it was going to be a bigger battle than ever before.

"Knowing our ranking beforehand made us want to work even harder to place in the top three," said Selenke. "We wanted to bring home a trophy together." The girls fought to the finish and achieved 3rd place, making this the third consecutive year the girls cross country team has placed in the top three at the state meet.

Great At State

Freshman Kenzie Christopher, juniors Jenna Twait, Lexi Bergmeier, Morgan Hansen, Alison Peck, & Sophie Selenke, along with freshman Maddie Hansen hold up their state trophy after finishing 3rd. [] Peck finishes in 45th place while battling an injury. [] Twait runs to finish 14th overall. [] Selenke races at the state meet, qualifying as an individual for the second time in her career. She ended up placing 24th. [] Morgan Hansen battles to the finish at her third state meet, placing 31st. [] Bergmeier runs right behind Maddie Hansen, as they both continue to fight towards the finish. Maddie placed 36th and Bergmeier came in at 42nd. [] Christopher finished 95th at her first state meet.

*"Sam Hansen amazes me with his determination when he runs."
-Coach Sheri Selenke*
Sophomore Sam Hansen runs at the state meet. He finished at the state meet last year in 99th place, and this year he finished 42nd.

Believe And Achieve

Sophomore Ashlyn Kuhn jumps to spike the volleyball over the net into Dike-New Hartford territory. Junior Morgan Galbraith watches in excitement. [] Sophomore Sara Hansen sets the ball up for a kill. The volleyball team ended their 31-7 season when they fell to Dike-New Hartford after three sets.

FFA National Convention

Sophomores Jessica Regenwether & Thomas Mills along with senior Rachel Bauler pose for a picture at the convention center. [] Senior Travis Carolan plays a tractor game at the John Deere Pavilion the group visited.

SQUAD RED AWEY

See what the FFA students did on their trip to Nationals.