

On Throwback Thursday, Rowland and Ingvall donned Kansas City Royals jackets and scrunchies. Photo by: Lauren Slagle

RATC

Covered in vaseline and glitter, junior Rheiner Stahlbaum, sophomore Jackson Brinker and junior Jacob Haugen play The Hand Game waiting for RATC. Haugen won. "I did, of course I did," Haugen said. Photo by: Jordyn Cimmiyotti

Competing at station one, senior Brees Proctor gets low to pass the hula hoop over his body. This RATC game consisted of teams lined up with their arms linked together. The hula hoop was wiggled down the line as the players passed it over their heads. Photo by: Jordyn Cimmiyotti

EVENT

Story by: Abby Rastetter
Captions by: Claire Cramer
Layout by: Taryn Mock

Special Instructions

FOR PLANT USE	<input type="checkbox"/> PM	<input type="checkbox"/> CS	<input type="checkbox"/> CS2	<input type="checkbox"/> CC15	Con	HJT	QPP	<input type="checkbox"/> Pro	<input type="checkbox"/> ePro	<input type="checkbox"/> OLP	Prep SB	Place MEL	Proof NW
<input type="radio"/> MAC	<input checked="" type="radio"/> WIN				<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Going ALL OUT

On Monday, pajama day, Ingvall and Rowland wore nightgowns and curlers in their hair. Rowland borrowed the mug pictured in her hand from Stefanie Dao, the technology specialist. Photo by: Abby Rastetter

Tuesday for meme and vine day, Rowland and Ingvall dressed up as a popular Tik Tok meme, E-girls. Photo by: Taryn Mock

On Wednesday's Tacky Tourist day, Ingvall and Rowland sported bucket hats, leis and Hawaiian shirts. Photo by: Taryn Mock

Students take dress up days to the next level

Sophomores Grace Rowland and Mya Ingvall were disappointed in the student population for not participating more during the five dress-up days.

"It's frustrating that people can do everything else that involves homecoming as in the dance, Rock Around the Clock, parade and powderpuff but decide not to contribute by getting creative throughout the week," Rowland said.

Rowland and Ingvall were among the few that contributed to the dress-up days and were easily the best dressed in school, spending about $200 in total on their outfits. Their entire outfit finding process was done the week before homecoming week, and they both said it required little to no effort.

"When buying our outfits, it was kind of like, okay that looks good, let's get it and go," Ingvall said.

While they found most of their outfits at Walmart, Rowland and Ingvall both agreed that their most challenging outfit to figure out was for the 80s and 90s throwback day. They ended up borrowing their dads' old Kansas City Royals throwback jackets which they found the morning of.

As homecoming week went on, the two got many different reactions to their outgoing outfits, which they both expected.

"We got a lot of stares, laughs and smirky comments like 'nice fit'," Rowland said.

"It was kind of funny when we passed by people in the halls and they just stared," Ingvall said laughing.

Dragon Nation cheers on the football team at the beginning of the homecoming game. Fast forward to half time, the student section shrunk in half and was much quieter. Photo by: Jordyn Cimmiyotti

Leading the team onto the field is senior Colby Svestka. The Dragons played Muscatine and won 14-0. Photo by: Sierrah Mangra-Dutcher

TRADITIONS

Seniors Ethan Ung and Fabiola Gamboa wave to the adoring parade crowd. "My favorite part would have been having my best friend Ethan with me during homecoming court and riding the parade together," Gamboa said. "It was so fun seeing old friends and teachers while we drove by." King and Queen were awarded to seniors Andrew Bauer and Suzy Brewer. Photo by: Maddie Springer

Senior Traeton Wheeler cheers on the senior team at the Thursday powderpuff game. Seniors beat the sophomores 12-8, giving the 2020 class their second win in their career. Photo by: Jordyn Cimmiyotti

WORK ORDER
3

Job # 3292 School Johnston High School

Special Instructions

FOR PLANT USE

MAC WIN

PM CS CS2 CC15

Con HJT QPP

Pro ePro OLP

Prep SB

Place MEL

Proof NW