Kaleb Wieser

From watching the colorful trains whiz by, to creating his own art, Kaleb Wieser (11) has developed a love for graffiti.

"I see graffiti all over. It's an art that belongs everywhere," Wieser said. "I purposely sit by the railroad tracks, so I can see the various styles the different graffiti artists use."

Wieser began creating his own graffiti last year. He completes all of his work on paper.

Wieser said that every artist has a tag or signature that's original to them. "My tag is 'woke,'" Wieser said. "I wanted something that was meant for me."

Jacob Wenger

Without a swim team at West Delaware, Jacob Wenger (11) swims for Hempstead High School in Dubuque.

Wenger makes the trek to Dubuque from November to February to swim for the Mustangs.

"It might seem daunting," Wenger said, "but the team becomes like a family after a while."

His favorite event is the 500 freestyle with his personal best time of 5:19.

Over the three years on Hempstead's team, he has learned to "trust the process, keep on the grind and never falter."
