Katie Tippett

Creative Katie

Katie has many talents between playing volleyball and her artistic interests. She has been involved in art courses and the yearbook at Liberty. She was responsible for documenting Liberty's legacy as one of the head photographers for the yearbook staff. Katie also spends her free time creating art pieces that represent the modern age with CDs. When reflecting on things that make her unique, Katie noted that her dog's name is Phineas, like from the TV show, Phineas and Ferb, and she firmly believes that socks and sandals are the best fashion trend.

"My favorite thing about being a sophomore is having classes with my friends."
Macy Kazmierczak, 10

"My favorite thing about being a sophomore is that you are more comfortable at school."
Claire Hagg, 10

"The most difficult thing about being a sophomore is the harder AP classes."
Katlyn Johnston, 10

"I made it the easiest year so that I can mentally prepare for next year with all the harder AP classes."
Reanna Wanatee, 10
