

game time

The Pirates came out fighting against the North Tama Redhawks. It was a suspense-filled game full of action. Senior Ethan Fulcher led the Pirates with 135 rushing yards, while senior Aiden Larson led in tackles. Though they battled until the buzzer, the Pirates were not able to pull out the win due to a last minute play from North Tama. The Pirates fell, 6-8.

Senior Ethan Fulcher goes in for a tackle. >> The student section gets loud for anchorman Ron Steele before the game. >> Sophomore Caroline Mitchell and junior Jayden Burnside watch the kick-off. >> Junior Sara Hansen cheers excitedly. >> The high school cross country team runs the game ball from the Hudson Fire Station towards the Pirate stadium. >> Junior Mia McNeal and sophomores Eva Barfels and Caroline Mitchell perform the Hudson fight song with the crowd after a touchdown. >> The high school marching band prepares for their half-time show.

Let's Dance

Many freshmen gather at Hansen's Dairy Farm before their first HoCo dance. >> Some sophomores pose for a group picture at sophomore Tori Kolterman's home. >> Juniors Sam Hansen, Sara Hansen, Jessica Carolan, Jake Geisler along with freshman Drew Hansen and Blake Carolan take a photo at Hansen's. >> Seniors Sophie Selenke, Tara Jochumsen, Naomi Henderson, Luke Koenigsfeld, Jackson Selenke, and Austin Appleton posed at Henderson's house. >> Freshman girls show their beautiful corsages.

H Court

Seniors Morgan Hansen and Alex Reynolds, Klaire Krapfl and Ethan Fulcher, Sophie Selenke and Trey Germain, Abby Gaudian and Eli Fox, Naomi Henderson and foreign exchange student Elias Schneider, Emma Kegebein and Payton Stuart walk down the field during half-time. >> Stuart and Henderson were crowned king and queen.

"I was completely shocked when I won. I am so honored."
senior Naomi Henderson

