

LOBBY FOR LOVE

This year, Valentine's Day lands just after the Iowa Caucus, the first step in the 2020 Presidential Election. While there is often a spirit of competition and tension among candidates and presidents of opposing parties, we wanted to spread a little love and fun amidst the election process. Enjoy these politically-themed Valentine's Day cards. You can cut them out to give to a friend, significant other, or any loved one, or just enjoy reading them yourself. Have a happy Valentine's Day!

You look so good that I can't stop Steyer-ing!
