Fall

Time to Jump In

“ Starting senior year in a pandemic is as memorable as it gets. It’s OUR time to make memories.”

Emma Merkes, 12

Time to Fly
Practicing the choreography for color guard, Harper Blommers (10) hoists her flag into the clear blue sky.

Our Time to Ride
Principal Tim Felderman leads the student section through a wild roller coaster ride between sets at a home volleyball game.

Our Time to Soar
Seniors Mitchell Krogmann and Jared Voss celebrate one of many touchdowns during the first round of playoffs against Western Dubuque. The Hawks won, 55-20.

Spring

Time to Grow

“ I used this year to grow by making myself some new friends and trying new things.”

Faith Rich, 10

Making a Difference
For senior service day, Lauren Hoefer (12), Michael Mastin (12), and Kollin Pederson (12) shovel mulch to spread around the trees they planted.

Developing in the Darkroom
In the darkroom, Hailey Betels (12) and Kennedy Rees (12) look on as Kaydin Pals (11) develops her proof sheet for photography class.

Preparations for Bingo
Isabella Kanellis (11) and Katelin Ante (11) prepare for Bunny Hop Bingo.
