

JOURNEY THROUGH THE DECADES

Tessa Grooms smiles from ear to ear after being crowned 2020 homecoming queen. Craig Alan Becker was crowned homecoming king. Coronation was held on Monday, Oct. 5 at the Trojan Bowl so social distancing was possible. The homecoming theme this year was "Blast from the Past." As the homecoming candidates were introduced, they said their favorite decade, favorite childhood memory, and most memorable moment in high school. The 2020 homecoming court consists of seniors Keagen Garcia, Gunner Kirchoff, Steele McLaren, Colin Mullenix, Grant Sturm, Zane Vance, Joe Weaver, Craig Alan Becker, Tessa Grooms, Sydney Sanny, Haley Rasmussen, Anna Wieser, Caroline Pellett, Alyssa Derby, Grace Barkley, and Jenna Pelzer. The 2019 queen, Hana Holtz, crowned both the king and queen candidates due to the fact previous king, Tyler Moen, could not come back because of his Iowa State football schedule. Moen sent in a voice recording congratulating the new king and queen. Candidates were nominated by the senior class; all grades voted for king and queen.

THE MACHINE IS KING-

Craig Alan Becker is crowned Homecoming king. Becker is known throughout school as "the machine" due to his running skills in both cross country and track. "I think my favorite part was just knowing all the support I had from my classmates. It made it such a fun experience," Becker said.

Seniors

Trojan seniors celebrate after winning the spirit stick. The homecoming football game was held on Friday, Oct. 23. This was the first game held at the new Trojan bowl facility. The Trojans defeated the Tigers 42-0. Due to COVID-19 students were unable to play in the annual dodge ball competition between all the grade levels. Spirit points were given based on dress days, lunch games, banners and loudest cheers. Instead of float building each grade made a banner that was judged for spirit points.
