I'm thankful for the community that has supported Liberty Athletics because even in this pandemic they have still found ways to come watch and support us in many different ways." Ethan O'Donnell, 12

Mark Lowe, Coach

"People are going through things on a daily basis and to a certain degree school, time with friends and sports or all of the above are outlets for many individuals to take their mind off those things that may be impacting their lives negatively. The stronger that community bond, the more outlets or people we have that we can go to for almost anything. Community building and outreach has also been on top of my list, but I understand that during these times, we need it more than ever to let each other know that whatever you're going through, you aren't alone and have the support that you need to get through it."
