Prague, Vienna, Budapest,
Paris, London, India, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Swaziland, Salzburg.
No, these are not travel brochures.
They are all places Michael Moonjely has visited.

Although he enjoys traveling as a hobby, he balances that interest with school.

"Everyone in my family is so busy during the academic year. Our vacations are a time where we all get to relax and discover new places," said Moonjely, who has visited 15 different countries and over 20 states.

But a few locations stood out.

"Prague feels like a different world. Everywhere you go you are immersed with the rich history and culture of the Czechs," he said.
"Salzburg is picturesque ... you are able to see the beautiful Alps mountain range everywhere."

Moonjely juggles 1440, BPA and volunteer work at the UIHC. He's also publicity co-chair of Student Senate, an entertainment editor for the WSS, a member of the tennis team and a founding member of For Tomorrow, a new club that tries to improve the lives of South African children.

As a volunteer, "you get to see the difference you make right away," he said. "It doesn't take a genius or a star athlete. All you need is a desire to better the lives of other people."

He believes everyone has something to teach one another.

"I've learned to take advantage of as many of the opportunities West offers as I can," he said. "I'm only here for four years and I want to make the best of it."

Tennis is his break from school.

"The friendships you make with your teammates are very valuable."

I love performing at competitions and watching all the hard work pay off from the beginning of the season to the end.

KATE VANDER LEEST
DANCER
THEATRE WEST

You played Meg in Theatre West's production of "Little Women" this year. What was the audition process like? You read lines from the play with different combinations of people. Rehearsals started about a week after callbacks. Did you do anything to prepare for your role? Some of the other actors and I watched the movie to see more what our characters were like. You've been in several plays and musicals. Can you think of the time when you were most nervous? I was nervous before "Aladdin" last summer because it was the first acting part I ever had. I like musicals more, but being in "Little Women" really helped my acting skills. What's it like performing with your cousin Piper Wenzel '16? It's really fun because she's the only one that does everything I do: dance, show choir, singing and acting. I've learned a lot from watching her. What has been your favorite part about show choir? I love performing at competitions and watching all the hard work pay off from the beginning of the season to the end. Do you have any good luck rituals you do before you perform? Before a dance competition, the other dancers and I get in a circle and say "merde" to each other for good luck. What would you tell someone who's unsure if they want to audition for a Theatre West show? You definitely should. Even if you don't get a part, you can always audition for the next one. Don't be afraid to put yourself out there.
