

Weather Permitted

0

Football

Zero games at the varsity level were canceled or rescheduled, although pouring rain and extreme fog caused weather to play a memorable role for fans and players.

Reason Games Are Canceled

Rain and cold temperatures do not play a role in a cancellation or rescheduling of a game. If there is lightning, it is an automatic delay of 30 minutes.

4

Golf

Four golf meets were canceled/rescheduled/postponed because of rain.

Reason Meets Are Canceled

Meets are canceled if there is standing water on the greens or severe weather like lightning.

1

Cross Country

One cross country meet was rescheduled because of heat.

Reason Meets Are Canceled

When the heat index is over 100 many meets choose to not run because it compromises the safety of the athletes.

1. Shania Peralta stands firmly on the feild playing her flute as water droplets form on her glasses. “There was a wave of mixed emotions from the performance,” Peralta said. “I was afraid my flute was going to slip out of my hands, but it was definintly a show to remember.” (Photo by Ashley Long)

2. With her arms hitting a high V, senior Riley Graham assists elementary-aged students during the cheer team’s mini cheerleader camp. The annual camp allowed the mini cheerleaders to perform at a Friday football game and learn some cheers for the future. (Photo by Corrina Iler)

3. With junior Kallie Beebe spotting, juniors Anna Logsdon, Johanna Miller and sophomore Amy Hoellein load for a lib during cheerleading practice. The team’s goal was to have an all-squad lib before cheer camp in July. The varsity squad went to Universal Cheerleaders Association (UCA) cheer camp in the Wisonson Dells. (Photo by Hailey Cooper)

4. Senior Megan Buckallew cuts holes out of the linings of the 2013-2014 yearbooks. The circle cut out in the cover was meant to match the “Glimpse” theme. The yearbook staff cut holes out of over 1,000 books. (Photo by Elizabeth Reiher)

In the pouring rain, sophomores Maddie Smith and Megan Young lift sophomore Sydney Brincks during the dance team’s halftime jazz performance. The performance took place during the game against S.E Polk. “My lift group was worried about dropping me because it was so slippery,” Brincks said. (Photo by Ashley Long)

Special Instructions

FOR PLANT USE

☒MAC

☐WIN

☐PM

☐CS

☐CS2

☒CS5

☐Con

☐HJT

☐QPP

☐Pro

☐ePro

☐OLP

☐Prep SB

☐Place MEL

☐Proof mp