We are.

Who knows who we are? Our parents? Our teachers? Our neighbors? Our friends? Our social media? No. Everyone sees what they choose to see. They see jocks. They see drama queens. They see nerds. They see preps. They see what's on the surface. If they chose to look beneath the surface, just a little deeper, they would see who.... We are.

We aren't just makeup and clothes...

We're the awesome people inside them.
