We're Outta Here!

"And we're takin' all of our memories with us."

Hear the memories rrrrrooooaaawwwrrrr!

As they pulled into the driveway at 7:30 a.m., students were startled with the dead silence in the near-empty parking lot instead of the bustling, noisiness they were used to.

Aimlessly roaming down the dimly-lit hallways, big, royal blue lockers greeted students in areas such as the music, the drama, and the main office hallways.

With bigger lockers, faculty members enforced the new backpack rule, in which students were to keep big bags, backpacks, and coats inside their lockers until the dismissal bell rang.

Besides the new lockers, the bonfire brightly illuminating the night skies, sparked excitement as students and faculty members rejoiced in its return after an absence of 11 years.

Jump starting the new school year off with a fiery explosion of school spirit, intense Wildcat pride spread like wildfire to unlock the memories.

Side by Side Dower Same, from the sash to shoes, seniors John Nguyen and Calvin Conger twin for Twin Tuesday for the homecoming spirit week. "It was intense to decide what to wear, but I found my bowling shirts and we matched," said Conger.

Down but Not Out

the highlight of the parade was the football breakdown from Wood to North," said sophomore Ryan Olson.

Summer/Fall

From the freedom of the lazy days of summer to the busy days of starting school, students found their own combinations to unlock memories of the new lockers, the return of the bonfire, the huge neighborhood parade, the homework, the tests, the no backpack rule, the dress code, and the excitement of fine arts performance and athletic events. As summer breezes transformed into crisp autumn winds, their memories changed as quickly as the leaves tumbled to the ground.
