Senior Eleanor Witt, juniors Joel Williams, Katie Bennett, and senior Mark Vos sang the National Anthem at Pella's state semifinal football game Nov. 13.

"We've started out really good, and I can't wait to see what we can do the rest of the season," said sophomore Clara Buchheit.

Senior Garret Jansen put up a shot in their game at Pella Christian Dec. 18. The Dutch won 87-74 against their cross-town rivals.

"I really like cheering for the boys and girls basketball teams. It's a fun way to be involved, and it's something new for me," said senior Megan Atkins.

"I love that I get to watch my teammates hard work in practice pay off in competition. I enjoy seeing our improvement throughout the season," said junior Jake Speltz.

Seniors Nicholas Van Engen and Kyle Strong search for their 8th grade time capsules handed out Dec. 9.

Senior Ferie captain Kaita Whinner, sophomore Paige Meyer, and freshman Natalie Henry performed their kick routine during the halftime of the boys' basketball game against Norwalk Jan. 9.

Seniors Mark Vos, Nicole VanWyk performed during AcaPella's competition at Cedar Rapids Prairie Jan. 10.

Senior Eleanor Witt was announced Tulip Queen Nov. 8. Alongside her (back right) were seniors Leah Wilborn, Megan Atkins who became members of the Tulip Court.

"Our team has a lot more chemistry now that we have been playing longer, so we are getting better. The season started out rough, but now we're flowing," said senior Isaac Naaktgeboren.
