

Going With The Flow

"The Troy Bolton"

Senior Noah Hermansen's long flowing hair is exactly why people today are calling this new look "flow." As our generation has grown up, it has been commonly known that girls have long hair and boys have short hair. As the years go by, however, more and more guys have started to try out the luscious locks. Famous celebrities like Brad Pitt, Chris Hemsworth and in Noah's case, Troy Bolton have tried out the new flow and inspired guys all around to let their hair go free.

What's the hardest part about having long hair?

"Probably working out. It gets in my eyes a lot, but once it gets sweaty, I usually flow it back, and it's fine."

What's the best part about having long hair?

"I don't know what else to say besides I just like having flow."

How long did it take you to grow out your hair?

"It has always been pretty long. I decided to start putting it back one day and started to wear hats. It slowly but surely just started to turn into flow."

When do you think you will go back to short hair?

"I've thought about it a couple times recently but can never get more than a trim. The only time I may change to short hair is in college."

What inspired you to grow out your hair?

"It all started when 'High School Musical 2' came out. I wanted Troy Bolton's hair."

"The Flippin' Swag"

Senior Conrad Nichols has been blowing the minds of his peers for years with his stunning good looks and wise advice, but one life-changing day last November, Conrad decided to take it to a whole new level. He grew his hair out into a beautiful flow and pulled off what every man wishes he could do: the man bun. Ever since pulling off the man bun, Conrad's family and friends have feared, respected and looked up to him in a whole new way.

What's the hardest part about having long hair?

"When it is windy outside."

What's the best part about having long hair?

"It looks flippin' swag."

How long did it take you to grow out your hair?

"I haven't had it short since the end of last November, but I've had it trimmed a few times since then."

When do you think you will go back to short hair?

"Not sure. Maybe at the end of the year."

What inspired you to grow out your hair?

"I thought man buns were cool, so I was going to grow one for prom."

Hair by any other length would look as sweet

Photos, story and layout by Staff Writer Nathan
Hoy

"The Womanizer"

Senior Connor Houlihan makes it hard for the ladies to stay away from him. Not everyone can pull off the flow as well as Connor. With his hip attire, charming personality and beautiful locks, keeping away the girls is one of his most challenging tasks.

What's the hardest part about having long hair?

"Beauty is hard."

What's the best part about having long hair?

"I feel majestic, and I stand out."

How long did it take you to grow out your hair?

"Six months."

When do you think you will go back to short hair?

"I'm planning on cutting it either in November or December."

What inspired you to grow out your hair?

"Soccer season. Everyone decided to start getting the flow going, so along with Conrad and Blake, I started to grow mine out too."

"The Personal Statement"

Senior Nathan Doyle has been pulling off the flow for quite a while now. His dark, beautiful hair gives him that unique look where everyone will know who he is. Nathan's bright, joyful personality is just complimented by the long, soothing flow he has going on.

What's the hardest part about having long hair?

"I would say washing it, taking care of it and the maintenance is probably the hardest part."

What's the best part about having long hair?

"You feel unique. It's definitely a personal statement."

How long did it take you to grow out your hair?

"Six months."

When do you think you will go back to short hair?

"Possibly my sophomore year of college. I say find a length and keep it."

What inspired you to grow out your hair?

"Elliot Tensen."