Pairing up with his dad in covering UNI sports, junior John Dunlop has been on the sidelines of some of the top games this season. One of his favorite subjects is definitely senior UNI guard Wes Washpun. "I really enjoy shooting pictures of UNI. Taking sports photos has really given me a unique perspective of the games," Dunlop said.

Another thrill for Dunlop opened up when the ESPN website used his photo from the game vs. Southern Illinois. "Getting my photo of Matt Bohanon's swat on ESPN's website with the headline of the article going along with it was pretty special. It has really fueled me to be more serious about my photography," Dunlop said.
