

OUR GAME OF

start

Being able to go to a school where teachers put so much effort into individual success was extremely beneficial to me and I'm grateful for it.
-Megan Schwenneker

Since freshman year, Mrs. Stanek has impacted my four years in high school. This being both our and her last year is very special because she's been there with us since the beginning, and now, we're finishing it together.
-Kiley Gardner

Finding new friends really changed the person I am. I realized who I was around before didn't make me as happy as the people I am around now.
-Jasmin Cullen

When I was able to go on the trip to Florida with the choir group, I had the time of my life.
-Tanner Wendling

I had never thought I, Alex Colson, would do a sport as crazy as track.
-Alex Colson

One of the teachers that impacted me is Mrs. Angove because she's like a loving, second mother.
-Jesse Murray

I believe the trip to Costa Rica with the Spanish and Biology classes will impact me greatly. It will show me cultures that I've never seen before with people I've known forever.
-Brendan Owens

Cheerleading has allowed me to break from my shell and become more lively. The bond I have formed with the other squad members is irreplaceable.
-Alexis Pint

the stupid drama because it won't matter when you leave high school.
-Taylor Shock

It sounds cliché, but think for yourself. Don't agree with what everyone says. You're only in high school for a short period of time, so don't get caught up in all the stupid drama because it won't matter when you leave high school.
-Taylor Shock

One thing that affected me in a positive way during school was when I started to play baseball.
-Brandon Campos

It was junior year, and even though I was totally against it, the cross country team convinced me to go out. It was the best decision of my life. Every meet and practice, my teammates cheered me on and were always proud of me. I've never had a team that was so close as a whole.
-Kaitlin Clark

I think that just transferring to Hudson helped me. I've learned more here and I just feel more comfortable in general.
-Jeremy Welch

Mr. Simmer had an impact on me because he tried to get on a personal level and seemed to care about what was happening in my life outside of school.
-Ellie Karr

You are much more than just a number. Study hard and try, but you're worth much more than just a high GPA or an A in a class.
-Kara Nunemaker

Mrs. Yoder is one of the teachers who has made a great impact on my life because she taught me the saying, "You get what you give."
-Corey Miles

Playing Varsity sports really impacted me. When everyone was cheering me on, I felt good about myself. Sports also encouraged me to keep up my grades.
-Sean Ham

If you're not happy with who you are, do something to change it.
-Liz Bair

Mr. Scott, the old shop teacher, taught more than just shop class. He was someone who had life lessons as well.
-Shane Karkosh

A teacher that impacted me is Mrs. Angove. Taking her classes, I was able to express myself because art is such a unique thing with no wrong answers."
-Kortney Craig

Hudson's early grads:

- Endi Buljubasic
- Brittin Faiferlick
- Justin Huey
- Daniel Myers

Megan Swanson will be partaking in an internship through her church for worship leading.

Hailey Stedman will be attending Capri College to study Cosmetology in hopes to own her own salon.

Bradley Wooden will be attending Hawk-eye Community College to study Graphic Design in hopes to be a video game designer.

Maddie Tjaden will be attending Iowa State University to study Human Services in hopes to become a social worker.

Maddie Bell is going to the University of Northern Iowa to study Strength and Conditioning in hopes to become a coach. She will also run track for UNI.

Tori Goodale will be attending the University of Jamestown in South Dakota to study Occupational Therapy and will play soccer and wrestle while there.

Kassidy Mayer will be attending the University of Northern Iowa to study Communication Sciences and Disorders.

Taylor Wulf will be attending Iowa State University to study Ag Business and Animal Science which she will use to work for an Ag company and own her own farm.

Shaniya Denson will be going to school to study Psychology in hopes to become a psychiatrist.

Austin Jackson will be attending North Central University to study Sports Management.

Victoria Jones will be entering a ministry career to interpret for deaf children.

Jeff Brown will be entering the workforce and following a career in construction.

clipart courtesy of google.com

page designers: seniors Alexis Pint and Megan Schwenneker.