

How to Succeed Without Really Trying

By Ashley Goebel

Performing for the crowd, Rachel Haight (10), Kara Hawker (11), and Ella Oakleaf (12) sing the song "A Secretary is Not a Toy." "I enjoyed dressing up like a hula dancer," Haight said.

Singing the song "Happy to Keep His Dinner Warm," Annie Cassutt (11) plays the part of Rosemary Pilkington. "It was really fun to take my character and bring her to life," Cassutt said.

During the scene The Company Way, Alex Zumbach (10) and Christian Schnieders (12) work in the mail room. "I enjoyed how my character could find his way around the truth in situations," Schnieders said.

During the song "Old Ivy," the football players cheer for their college. Front Row: Max Weber (10), Cooper Weeks (12), Colin Weber (12), John Juergens (10); Back Row: Alex Zumbach (10), Nolan Bernau (11), Matt McMahon (12), Christian Schnieders (12), Jacob Gasper (12), and Colin Werner (12).

Annika Sutter (9), Katie Scovel (11), Anna Noggle (11), Kristina Herdrich (12), Hope Straley (9), Aleah Vaske (10), and Hannah Wenger (9) participate in "The Company Way" scene.

During the scene "A Secretary is Not a Toy," Erika Hill (11), Bergan Blommers (11), Bethany Schnieders (12), and Kennedy Rogers (10) participate in the musical. "I liked how there was a lot of ways to take my character and others characters this year," Hill said.

Mariah Seeley (10), who acts as a secretary for Colin Werner (12), writes a message. "My favorite part of the musical was dancing with my 'brother,' Christian (Schnieders)," Werner said.
