Seniors Reflect on their High School Years

"Go out of your comfort zone and meet new people. You never know who your best friends will be when you graduate." -Makenzie Recker. "Enjoy every moment presented to you." -Kaylor Recker. "Don't take experiences for granted and make the most of every situation, good or bad." -Hannah Hogan. "Take advantage of the time you have with your friends." -Cassidy Schaul. "Get involved freshman year." -Kristi Klein. "Manage your time wisely between sports, activities, and homework." -Hope Mozingo. "Giving up and not caring isn't the answer." -Angel Wright. "Empower yourself and others." -Isabelle Breittfelder. "Teachers don't try to make your life hard; they just want you to succeed." -Macy Gudenkauf. "Try to make it to as many school events as possible—it means a lot to see your classmates supporting you." -Bridget Hoffmann. "Stay involved in school activities; it keeps you busy and focused on your school work." -Carlee Ketchum.
