Better than "Good"

Pleasant Valley band has over three-hundred musicians. Among the mass of students, sophomore Ethan Good stands out from the crowd.

Ethan plays the trumpet in PV band but has been playing his favorite instrument, the piano, for ten years. Music has opened a lot of doors for Ethan. "It has introduced me to so many good people, helped me build a strong work ethic, and gives me stuff to talk about with my dad."

Music has allowed Ethan to do a lot of things. He's been able to make money, serve the community in many different ways and build character. Apart from the opportunities Ethan has had, he's won a plethora of awards. He won first and second place in the Baroque festival, was a Winter Blues all star, and received Jazz I.

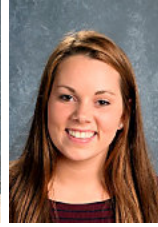

However, the accomplishments he's most proud of are making All-State and being nominated to represent the state of Iowa in the IBC Youth Showcase in Memphis, Tennessee with his band. Ethan's advice to young musicians is to keep practicing and to never give up.
