Three Students (who enjoy watching movies) Disclose Their Hollywood Favorites

Leonardo DiCaprio
 "He is completely inspiring to all ages and he really gives me the mumps and he also proves to kids that you can do whatever you put your mind to."
 —Jenna Starr '20

Jennifer Lawrence
 "I love Jennifer Lawrence because she's super relatable, funny and she eats a lot. My favorite movie I've seen of hers is definitely The Hunger Games."
 —Laurel Kelley '19

Melissa McCarthy
 "I love her because she's not like any other actress. She's super funny, and my favorite movie she's in is either Identity Thief or Spy. Everything she does makes me laugh."
 —Mackenzie Bonner '17

EYE ON ... Gadgets!

Apple Watch: "It's great to be able to receive and send texts from my watch. I also like that it can track my steps," Sydney Shie '17 said.
Fitbit: "I can track my steps and see which days I need to hit the gym. It also tracks my sleep, which is really helpful, but usually really sad to look at the low numbers of sleep," Anastasia Surguladze '19 said.

Cool, calm and collected is how Taylor Fridrich '18 likes her posts. "I like VSCO because you can break the stupid, 'no double posting' rule." Cassidy Putschio '19 likes to see photos as if you're "in the moment. VSCO is easy to use and the end result is crisp." Raginya Handoo '19 likes using the app to edit photos. "It gives a really professional look and allows you to edit many smaller details other apps don't let you."

 & The Bachelor
Stranger Things

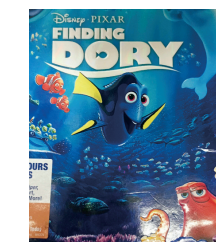

Stranger Things
 "Stranger Things is hands down one of my favorite Netflix series that I've watched."
 —Pieper Stence '18
 "Stranger Things is so much different than other shows, it's easy to stay interested."
 —Rachel Hoefl '18
 "I like that it's different from other shows I've watched, you never know what's going to happen."
 —Jordan Christensen '19
 "I like the show because it's a great show to watch all day with friends."
 —Callie Dains '18

The Bachelor
 Some students can't stop watching season 21 of The Bachelor Monday nights, when each episode presents new twists.
 "I love it because the girls always get in fights that are pretty funny or completely outrageous, which makes it fun to watch," Lexee Robbins '17 said. "I personally want Vanessa to win. She's super sweet and has made a great connection with Nick."
 The contestants are what keep viewers coming back for more.
 "It's so entertaining to see the crazy people they put on the show," Kennedy Hochstedler '19 said. "My favorite thing is when they go on one on one dates."
 Vanessa being a crowd favorite to win.
 "I watch it because I love the drama, and I think Vanessa is going to win this year," Izaya Ono-Fullard '17 said.

the 7 top movies YOU SHOULD HAVE SEEN THIS YEAR

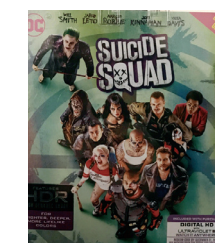

Finding Dory
 "Finding Dory was adorable. It was way better than Finding Nemo because Ellen DeGeneres is hilarious."
 —Sidney Kout '19

Rogue One
 "I like the movie because it was very entertaining and had lots of action."
 —Zach Albright '19

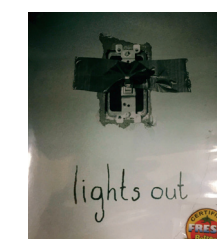

Zootopia
 "My favorite part is when Nick stands up for Judy when Chief Boggo is trying to take away her badge."
 —Nicole Fitzpatrick '19

Suicide Squad
 "It was cool and one of the only action movies I've actually liked. I hadn't seen any of the villains movies, but I still liked this one."
 —Heather Craig '19

Hidden Figures
 "I liked it. It was very inspirational and made me feel empowered."
 —Brittan Gregoire '18

Lights Out
 "It was very strange. Very weird animations of the scary thing. Overall, it was OK but not what I thought it would be."
 —Camryn Bengé '18

Me Before You
 "I like the movie because it was still a love story with an ending you wouldn't normally expect."
 —Emma Steffen '17
