1. Down for the Count With immaculate precision, Josh Hann (19) aims to knock down his last two pins. His best game of the boys bowling season had a score of 278.

"Bowling is a good way to vent stress," said Hann. (J. Jurgena)

- 2. Winter Weight In George Marshall Gym, Caleb Dansou (18) kicks off a match against Clinton. The team had to train all throughout winter and focus on cutting or gaining weight, depending on the weight class they wrestled in. "The best part of this season was training and helping each other get better," Dansou said. (T. Hansen)
- 3. Wear the Crown At the Spree Aud, Izzy Tot (17) wins the vote for Spree King while the crowd applauds. The Spree Court and their escorts received recognition at the aud and went out for lunch afterward with their parents. "I was happy to be on Spree Court, and liked getting out of school afterwards," said Taylor Meador (17).
