

breaking enrollment records, 2,092 students piled into the building, making for crowded hallways and large classes. With Liberty High opening next fall, Trojans and future Lightning Bolts stood together as classmates but were rivals on the field. Students stayed in sixth-hour classes an extra 20 minutes every Tuesday and Wednesday for Academic Focus Time. Coming together as one, the seniors grabbed a 28-0 win in the Powderpuff game Sept. 15. "It is a fun, competitive way to get the upperclassmen more involved in Homecoming week," Mackenzie Bonner '17 said.
