

Part C
8:00	Registration open
8:45 - 9:40	Opening & Keynote - Seung Min Kim - Main Lounge
Room number		256		347	346	351
Capacity		70		41	66	36
		DO-IT SESSIONS - SIGN UP IN ADVANCE Limitted seating
9:50 - 10:30	9:50 - 12:00 - This is a two hour class FACEBOOK FACEBOOK Project - The SPI/Facebook Journalism Project that shows journalists how to best use Facebook and Instagram to connect with audiences, find content and build communities.- Ben Meyerson, Chicago Tribune Web team		9:50 - 10:55	PHOTO	One-Hour Photo -A 60-minute hands-on crash course in photojournalis. Bring your cameras. - Todd Mizner, Moline Dispatch	SOCIAL MEDIA	Social Media Storytelling - In this hands-on workshop, students will brainstorm and create a "Story" for Instagram and/or Snapchat that promotes their school or publication. We will start with learning some storytelling basics, then storyboard and create. Students will need to bring something to write with and their phones (tablets will work too). Sign up in teams of 2-4 students and you'll work in teams. - Chris Snider, Drake University	VIDEO	Beginner session - How to shoot video that doesn't suck - In this hands-on session you'll learn the tricks pros use to make good video and then get out of the classroom and put those skills to use. Please bring video gear with you, whatever your typical shooting set up would be, cameras, tripods, microphones, ect. - Brian Powers, Des Moines Register
10:40 - 11:20			11:05 - 12:10	PHOTO	One-Hour Photo -A 60-minute hands-on crash course in photojournalis. Bring your cameras. - Todd Mizner, Moline Dispatch		SOCIAL MEDIA		Social Media Storytelling - In this hands-on workshop, students will brainstorm and create a "Story" for Instagram and/or Snapchat that promotes their school or publication. We will start with learning some storytelling basics, then storyboard and create. Students will need to bring something to write with and their phones (tablets will work too). Sign up in teams of 2-4 students and you'll work in teams. - Chris Snider, Drake University	VIDEO	Advanced session - How to shoot video that doesn't suck - In this hands-on session you'll learn the tricks pros use to make good video and then get out of the classroom and put those skills to use. Please bring video gear with you, whatever your typical shooting set up would be, cameras, tripods, microphones, ect. - Brian Powers Des Moines Register
11:30 - 12:10
12:10 - 1:15	12:10 - 1:15 -Lunch - Advisers on the Sun Porch - Students on your own check options on page seven
1:20 - 2:00	1:20 - 2:00	Graphics		YEARBOOK	Design Trends - Telling your story of 2020 through Words, Photos and Design - See what is new and upcoming coming from the corporate platform of trends and design. Learn how to incorporate fresh new ideas into your next yearbook/newspaper. - Walsworth team	STUDENT PANEL	Keeping Calm in the Chaos Being in charge can be tough. Come and learn from a group of editors as they explain how they manage to convince people they have it all together. Hear about how they redesigned their organizational structure in the newsroom and the tools they use to keep track of it all. This session will be beneficial to those adjusting to being in a position of power as well as those who struggle to put the 'control' in controlled chaos. Johnston high tudent panel	VIDEO	"Take your video creating to the next level - Try YouTube" - Ever wanted to try vlogging or creating a YouTube channel for your school's broadcast section? Learn how to master the basics of YouTube, video editing and free software from West High editor Jenna Wang, who has more than 100k subscribers and over 7.5 million views on her channel. Ever wondered what a YouTube creator studio looks like, or how YouTubers make money and create change? Jenna reveals the key to great video ideas, how to use tags, design thumbnails, use music and much more to broadcast your videos to billions in any niche in this vital crash course.
2:05 - 2:30	Awards - Main Lounge										