Over winter break, Hudson students celebrated New Year's Eve in many different ways. Students got together to start the new year off with each other. They celebrated by playing games, blowing noise makers and wearing festive new year's beads, hats and glasses. While waiting for the ball to drop, students set high New Year's resolutions, hoping to make their goals and dreams come true this year. Whether they were with friends, family or neighbors, everyone had a great time celebrating the New Year.
