

Sophomores

Friendly Fiesta. Megan Lueckenotto 16, Hannah Thompson 16, Marissa Nolan 16 and Reanna Bear 16 enjoy their time together. Reanna said, "I like eating lunch with all my friends because it's our time to talk as much as we want." [photo] Brooke Boddicker

Blood Donation. A delicious cookie is a must for Zach Jacobi 16 once he completes his blood donation. "I wasn't scared at all," Zach said. "I would do it again because I was saving lives, and that's an awesome feeling." [photo] Sarah Cotton

Creative Canvas. Kaelyn Knaack 16 applies dramatic make-up for theater arts. She said, "I had to pick a fantasy face to recreate. Mine was some kind of fairy. Everyone had different ideas, and it was so cool to see all the interesting things people tried." [photo] Kelsey Garin

Stylish Signatures. On the band wall, Kenna Germann 16 and Erin Gatewood 16 sign their names. "We had originally helped paint the actual figures," Kenna said, "so it was fun to sign our names." [photo] Ashley Masten

What is your SCARIEST moment?

"I almost got hit by a truck because I just ran into the street without looking, but it swerved to miss me. It really scared me, so now I always make sure to look both ways."
-Miranda Dietrich 16

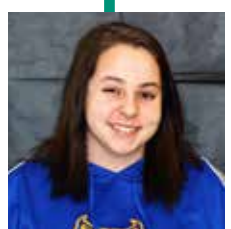

"My dog one time attacked me. My brother was harassing it, and then it ended up biting me. I still have two big scars from his teeth marks."
-Marcial Carte 16

"The first day of high school was pretty scary. I was intimidated by all of the upperclassmen. Now that it's my second year, I'm not scared, and I actually like high school."
-Daxton Traut 16

"Last year in wrestling I broke two ribs and started to spit up blood. I was worried I had punctured a lung. I ended up going to the hospital to make sure it was okay."
-Branden Havens 16

"My brother sprained my neck when I was in fifth grade. We were just wrestling around and he accidentally kneed it. At first, I thought I broke my neck, but it was just a little strained."
-Bailey Kerkman 16
