Colophon

The 2014 staff published a 144-page book, Volume 48 and printed 285 copies. The theme was "Stand Out." Bob Kerdus served as the Jostens' representative and Tina Nilo the yearbook consultant.

Lifetouch took the composite photographs for most of the underclassmen sections. Students who missed picture day and retakes, yearbook staff members photographed. Various local photographers and yearbook staff members took senior composite photos.

Kathleen Goslinga and other local photographers took the team photos. Yearbook staff members captured most of the candid photos seen throughout the book. Few student body members and parents also took some of those candid.

The yearbook staff used six Canon Digital cameras. Adobe Photoshop CS6 was used to adjust photo color and image size. Adobe InDesign CS6 was used to create the book.

The books palette consisted of five colors: NU Seascap, NU Promise, NU Limelight, NU Nectarine and NU Grape. Century Gothic 10-point font was used for the article body copies. Caption headlines were AYT Ebony 9-point font. Article sub-headlines were AYT Ebony 14-point font. AYT Elegance was used as the display font.

Yearbook pages were worked on during seminar class and after school. The cost of one book was $51 if pre-ordered and $60 at the time of distribution.

The Bentonian staff has a membership to the Journalism Education Association, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, National Scholastic Press Association and the Iowa High School Press Association.
