On behalf of the Bentonian staff, I would like to give a big thanks to all who helped make the 2013-2014 book possible. To our Josten's representative, Bob Kerdus, who assisted with all the difficulties we experienced along the way. To Gary Lindsay who helped us through technical snags encountered with the MAC computers.

Also, thank you Melisa Venneman for providing us with all of those lists and to secretaries Bonnie Sherwood and Brenda Brenneman who navigated those who needed to be interviewed.

Thank you to the teaching staff who allowed us to interrupt their classes to gather essential quotes, information and photos of students.

Gary Zittegruen, James Bieschke, Kal Goodchild and other board members permitted four yearbook members to travel to Boston, Massachusetts, for the 2013 JEA/NSPA Convention; thank you.

Our sponsors, to whom we owe an enormous thank you. Without the sponsors' generosity, we would not have access to the vital technology and tools to make the yearbook.

And, of course, to our wild adviser Diane Redmond, thanks for putting up with all of us girls. As we wandered off task, you headed us right back on track. For mentoring us through our crazy excursion, you made this journey eventful and enjoyable.

Most of all, thank you readers. Although we sometimes talked people's ears off to try to capture a story, we appreciate the time offered to us. Also, we thank everyone for his or her cooperation when it came time to take a photo, even though it was not always a pleasant process. All of these things made this yearbook a success. Thank you for allowing us to seize the moment and make this year stand out.
