1st Team All Conference:
John Nagel

2nd Team All Conference:
Tyler Cassutt

Honorable Mention:
Jordan Nolz, Thomas Trainer

Sophomore Matt McMahon dribbles the ball toward the Hawk basket in order to add two points to the team's score against Oelwein.

Nolan Lyness (9) scores against two of his Denver defenders. The freshman team finished the season with a record of 16-4.

On defense, senior Mitch Demmer guards his opponent closely. "It was a good year, and I hope they just keep on improving," Demmer said.

Triple-teamed by his opponents, John Nagel (9), the Hawks' post, clenches the ball as he works toward the hoop. As a freshman, Nagel accumulated 156 rebounds.

Playing aggressively, Bryce Frick (10) fights for the loose ball. Along with Frick, the junior varsity team finished their season with a 7-14 record.

Airborne, junior Jordan Nolz puts up a one-handed shot. Nolz led the team in scoring with 195 points.

hawk fight never dies.

As a Beckman player shoots a free throw, Kyle Wright (9) and Aaron Demmer (10) prepare to rebound the shot.

Leading the varsity team with 24 steals, junior Ryan Kelley dribbles past his defender. "Our record didn't show how hard we worked every day to get used to a new coach," Kelley said.
