

Follow the path

PHOTO BY NIDHI PATEL

MAFIA FUN:

Ben Dellas '14 and Ashley Haas '16 play Mafia after school Oct. 9 in Room 124. "It's always fun and a great way to meet new people," Haas said.

Board Game

As the game began, Eleni Katz '14 showed determination to win Pokémon Sorry! at the Board Game Club after school Sept. 16. A huge selection of games awaited the Board Game Club, and they played different games each time they met.

"Board Game Club is a great place to have a fun time and meet new friends," Katz said.

Ashley Haas '16 agreed. "There is always food," she added.

PHOTO BY KRISTINA BAUER

SLOW AND STEADY:

Molly Lipman '15 removes a single Jenga block from the tower after school Sept. 23. "I look forward to Board Game Club every week. It makes Mondays so much better," Lipman said.

EYE ON THE PRIZE:

Eleni Katz '14 draws her next card while playing Pokémon Sorry! at Board Games Club Sept. 16 after school in Room 124. "Board Games Club is a great place to have a fun time and meet new friends," Katz said.

PHOTO BY KRISTINA BAUER

PHOTO BY NIDHI PATEL

COLLEAGUES SAY:

Sam Fleagle '15 and Eric Nash '15 play Apples to Apples after school Oct. 2 in Room 124. "Candyland is my favorite game because it is such a simple but amazing games," Fleagle said.

PHOTO BY NIDHI PATEL

PHOTO BY NIDHI PATEL

BETWEEN THE BARS:

Francis Jayoma '16 parks his bike before a quick meeting on Oct. 19. "When I'm not getting swole around my triceps in Cross Country I usually end up biking," Jayoma said.

PHOTO BY NIDHI PATEL

LINED UP FOR TAKEOFF:

Juniors Daniel Smith, Akash Borde, Martin Goree, Josh Jensen and Abdalla Ali get ready to put their feet to the pedal Oct. 19. "We choose our routes depending on what people come (to meetings)," Smith said.

Free Riders

Feeling the wind rush against their helmets, speeding down a hill or cruising across town represent some things Free Riders experience each time they ride.

"Biking in a group is great because it allows me to combine two things that I really like—biking and hanging out with friends—into one nice activity," Martin Goree '15 said.

Graduated seniors created the club, "but we made it happen," Akash Borde '15 said. The biking club gives students the experience and ability to bike in a group with friends at school.

PHOTO BY NIDHI PATEL

PUMPING AIR:

Juniors Abdalla Ali, Josh Jensen and Daniel Smith fill a flat tire Oct. 19 before taking a weekly ride. "Every year we double in size. In a couple of years, the whole school will be in the club," Smith said.

ONE AFTER ANOTHER:

Juniors Akash Borde, Abdallah Ali and Martin Goree ride off school grounds Oct. 19. "We also ride throughout the summer," Borde said. "We're the only West High club that is year-round."

Board Games/Free Riders 107