"Sophomore year is different.
You can fit in more, and everyone is slowly becoming an upperclassman."
-Desiree Camp ('16)

"The stairs are definitely easier to get up now." -Victoria McNeal ('16)

How is this year different from last?

"I was new this year and this year I don't take so serious." -Vince Mayfield ('16)

"It's easier. The classes are somewhat easier to me and I have a lot more friends this year." -Tylont Roland ('16)

"I had a ghost as an imaginary friend when I was like five years old. It left when I was 12."
-Jasmine King ('16)

"There was this one time I was sitting in my room when I heard a big boom and I went downstairs and there was the Bible open to the page about angels and demons."

-Connor Slavens ('16)
