

February

“Warming up for marching band is serious business to (junior) Donella Weir.” The band was rained out of three of five performances of the year. Although, they did get to play at a home game, a field competition, the Homecoming parade, a fine arts fair, and two concerts.

In this chilly month...

The Seahawks defeated the Broncos
in Super BOWL XLVIII

(48 for those of you who don't read Roman Numerals.)

But some of us just showed up for the Food and Halftime Show.

Our archers aimed for the

Bullseye

at the NASP Iowa Games.

Fresh veggies were chopped up to improve knife skills...

(and avoid severed fingers.)

Valentine's Day preparations took place in room 414,

The National Anthem

was serenaded by another talented student.

And, we even enjoyed some temperatures in the 50's!
