

Fall Cheerleading

FLYER'S EYE VIEW - Seniors Lauren Krogman and Lexi Allen base junior Karly Monson in a prep stunt. Allen and Krogman based together throughout the football season. Bases are paired by height and the flyers are the smallest people on the team. Trojan cheerleaders work on stunting every day in practice. They perform risky stunts that create a show for parents and students at games. Monson snapped the unusual photo from her perch as a flyer for a journalism project.

AHHHHH! READY FOR KICKOFF - The cheerleaders get ready for the first kick of the game. During each kickoff the cheerleaders' poms go up.

GOOD LUCK - Freshman Kerra Christensen and sophomore Emily McDermott participate in the cheer "Good Luck" at the beginning of the game.

BODACIOUS BOWS - Varsity members walk back from meeting the opponents' cheer squad. Atlantic gives guest cheerleaders Powerades as gifts.

EVERYBODY LEAN - Atlantic students participate in the cheer "Lean" during the annual Pink-Out game.

FLYING HIGH - Junior Karly Monson holds a liberty stunt in the air. Monson is the primary flyer for the varsity cheer squad. Senior Lauren Krogman, junior Allie Siggins, and freshman Kerra Christensen hold as a steady base while Kate Fulk, Bethany Schmitt, Aubry Schwarte, Emily McDermott and Monica Witzman surround the stunt.

STICK IT - Freshman Shianne Adams sticks a liberty stunt with Kerra Christensen, Aubry Schwarte, Allie Siggins and Lexi Allen as base.

LET'S GO TROJANS - AHS cheerleaders watch intently as the football team fights a tough battle against ADM High School. Freshman Max Elwood, in the role of mascot Hector the Trojan, enlivened the crowd during the game. Elwood participated in practices to learn the football cheers. When the Trojans scored he performed various tumbling stunts.

Fire Up, Trojans!

Cheerleaders lead AHS spirit at assemblies and games

By Sierra Smith

Eighteen Atlantic High School cheerleaders worked to keep the Trojan spirit up during football season. After tryouts in March, the girls began practicing in June. Over the next months they organized fundraisers, hosted pep-rallies, and most importantly, cheered the Trojan football team.

With the help of Atlantic elementary teacher Chelsie Ross, the cheerleaders designed a t-shirt to sell to fans in the district. In addition to that fundraiser, the cheerleaders designed Pink-Out t-shirts for students and community members to wear to the football game against Perry High School. All the money raised was donated to a breast cancer awareness fund.

Students looked forward to the pep-rallies organized by the cheerleaders. Through cheers and games, the cheerleaders strove to get everyone involved. After tumbling relays, freezpop challenges, and angry-bird games, the students were pumped for Friday night games at the Trojan Bowl.

Love my cheer girls
Lexi Allen

My favorite cheer memory is the basket toss gone wrong with Kate, Monica and Allie.
-Lauren Krogman

My favorite memory is when my head went through the ceiling while stunting in Sr. Vargason's room
