Fashion inspires many people. It is a way to show and express how we are and how we feel. From where ever we get our inspiration, we always make it our own we add and take things to give it our touch. Fashion influences and impacts people in many ways , it gives us all the confidence to look our best and feel our best. There are many students here at East that shows off their own unique fashion sense and styles. Leslie Tiengkham/9 poses in front of the main entrance and showing off how much of a fashionista she is.

DIY (do it yourself) four strand braid

..easy to make you'll have it done in no time..

Braids are a cute feminine to style your hair, from complex to simple braids they are a stylish way to show off your hair. Four strand braids look hard to make but they are one of the easiest styles to make once you understand the basics. You'll have it down in no time. You can also make a waterfall braid with the four strand braid. Its always good to have fun while styling your hair in new ways.

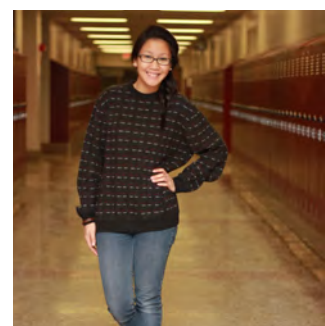

cashing out at the thrift shop

"I like thrift shopping because it's cheaper than your average mall prices and because it's different, quirky and also there is a slim to none chance you'll see someone wearing the same thing as you," Karla Chavez/11 said.

"It is cheaper then going to the mall, I like to just look around at cool stuff," Victoria Saengsavath/11 said.

" I like to go thrifting because it's fun to find cool and unexpected things such as clothes or antiques and the best part is that everything is cheaply priced," Kelly Tiengkham/12 said.
