

Our Story...

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE

- ▶ Senior Adrienne Nielsen holds up a fake candle with a scared face mimicking the "Conjuring" actress during the Senior Event.
- ▶ Junior Andrew Malloy tries to sneak into the girls restroom on "Opposite Gender Day" during Homecoming week.
- ▶ Sophomore Shelby Chizek holds up a paint brush and white canvas getting ready to paint in art class.
- ▶ Freshman Kyle Polson makes a crazy "Kyle face" during band practice.

One of a Kind

Wheeler's aren't known all around the world, but here in Audubon County, you can say we're pretty famous. Wheeler isn't just a wheel, it shows unity, outreach and compassion. The hub is our school, our students, reaching out (the spokes) to our community (the actual wheel). With the six spokes representing Character Counts; which Audubon is always showing. We are a spectrum of rays that could outshine the sun. We are unique. We are a painting of a miracle. A Wheeler stands strong in the face of weakness; we are united and ready to fight anything. We take on challenges with boldness. We are a group, a whole standing against the many challenges of everyday life. We help each other out, never letting go of the other's back. We are each other's shoulder to lean on, and crutch to help through the hard broken walk. We are more than students, we are more than a single person. We are a community of greatness. We are athletes, artists, musicians, volunteers, actors, scholars, and leaders. We are Wheelers.