

At the Solo Fest, juniors Nick Kaperka and Anton Klenske keep track of the scores with the new Google Chromebooks for the first time.

Darian Franklin

Betty Christian

Securing on the clamps, Coach Mr. Guy Dierikx shows the weight lifting device to satisfy the child's curiosity during strength camp.

At the 8th Grade Night, juniors Hannah Bosco and Alexa Harper play a game of Questionnaire with the hopeful future Wildcats for a prize.

Kristine Tran

Betty Christian

At the instrumental Ice Cream Social, Brayden Schaeffer drums to play just like his dad, Drumline Director Mr. Dave Schaeffer.

Darian Franklin

Back to school, former 2013 BC King Cordre Mack talks to the student body about keeping safe and having fun at the dance the next day.

Kevin Truong

STEPPING UP IN THE WORLD
Illustrating the anticipation of graduation, senior Breyana Williams symbolizes the excitement and pride that The Class of 2014 feels.

TRIM LINE

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

TRIM LINE

UP & AWAY

As the snow piled up, so did the number of snow days, which when added after Spring Break, forced fourth term to start a week later and summer vacation to wait until May 30.

To heat up life, the boys' bowling team won State for their three-peat, Northside garnered the Championship for the seventh consecutive year at Fort Madison, and the yearbook claimed the prestigious Neubert Award for the state Whole Book Contest.

Finally the temperatures went up to replace cabin fever and wrestling and swimming teams sent athletes to State. Heating up the stage, Center Stage made it to finals for the first time in seven years and won First Place for the Prep of the Day.

At the end of February, Chromebooks debuted in classroom sets for teachers and students to use. They will be mostly put into use with the increased number of incoming freshmen, 322 registered as of March 10.

With all the construction finally up, the year ended on a high note as music awards also soared, proving that students definitely went above and beyond!