

PEPPIN' IT UP

HE SAID

Spencer Peachee
(freshman)

SHE SAID

Maggie Warner
(sophomore)

"I liked playing in Pep Band because we got to play popular music. My favorite song was 'Danger Zone' because it was fun for my instrument, the alto sax."

"Ever since fifth grade, I have played the alto sax."

"My special moment playing in the Pep Band happened when the boys' varsity basketball team almost beat Assumption!"

"I liked playing in Pep Band because we got to play in that athletic atmosphere and we got to feel the excitement from the crowds."

"For 10 years, I have played the piano. Then this year, I joined Pep Band and played the keyboard."

"My special moment playing in the Pep Band happened at the boys' varsity basketball game against Assumption when all the students really paid attention to the game!"

RAT-A-TAT-TAT FROM A WILDCAT

To be sure to get it right, freshman Isaiah Gibbs focuses on drumming techniques while sending out the beats with the drum line that reverberate pounding sounds off the rafters and walls. "That Wildcat drum line made the bricks shiver as they beat out the school song," said Mascot Victor E. Wildcat after doing his antics to bring the crowd to their feet for the challenge cheer.

Darian Franklin

Staff

FLUTASTIC FLOURISH

Poised in proper position at a pep aud, freshman Jeannette Shuker, senior Karley Overmire, and freshman McKenna Canaday perform their contribution to the school spirit as the Pep Band belts out upbeat, motivational tunes to pump up the crowd.

Kevin Truong

CURIOUS & COUNTING

Listening to the beat of his own drums, sophomore Cole Neese eye some of the spirited actions of the crowd on the other side of Big Gym while igniting school spirit during school song. "The crowd was amazing this year as we rocked the gym with our dynamic drums," said Neese.