CHIT-CHAT

CURL THE HAIR

SKATER BOY

JEALOUSY

OLD BITTER BRITCHES

"OH WHATEVER"

Above: Freshman Katie Hovancik tries to talk to sophomore Emma O'Hara about her marriage and how she should wait till after the fair. Junior Jill Exline looks on in disgust. "At first it was very stressful at the beginning of the performance, but once the show got going it was a fun time. I think everyone who came to watch enjoyed it and thought it was very funny. I hope everyone tries out for the play next year," O'Hara said. Photo by Leah McCune

LAUGH IT OUT

Above Top: Junior Jill Exline laughs as junior Jenna Rohret shows her a funny mask. This year was Rohret's first year being in the play. "We were supposed to be helping Katie [Frankie] clean the house, but we ended up making fun of her," Rohret said. Photo by Leah McCune

"CHARGE"

PUT 'EM UP
