We won't remember every intricate detail from this year. We won't remember locker combinations, the name of that one famous guy who first described the atomic structure, or the hours spent cramming for a test we will never remember taking. But we will remember coming together as a school.

The crowds that were cheering on powder-puff and powder-buff teams. The support for FFA members and show choir. The student section at every event. We will remember Saturday work days for journalism and the time spent making sure every wire was attached correctly in robotics. How about that time we were conference champs or took first at the state fair?
